

“From age 13, you can fly in a light aircraft with hands-on experience, supervised by a qualified flight instructor.”

Aerospace & aeronautics | Advanced leadership skills & training | Powered flying training | Remotely piloted aerial systems (drones)
 Military fieldcraft | Bushcraft & survival | Firearms safety training | Mapping, navigation & compass | Radio communications
 First aid | Parade with sword, rifle, flags & banners | Fly in military & civilian aircraft | Free uniforms | Make best friends for life
 Duke of Edinburgh's International Award | Earn points towards your WA Certificate of Education

Launch your aerospace career (or other great future) in the Air Force Cadets

To join, you must be:

- At least 12 and turning 13 this year but not yet 16
- Enrolled in Year 7 or above
- An Australian permanent resident in good health
- And have parent/guardian permission

No.712 (City of Belmont) Squadron
 Palmer Barracks Barker Road South Guildford
Wednesday 6.15 - 9.30pm (except school holidays)

Enquiries

admino.712sqn@airforcecadets.gov.au

or 08 9447 1111

www.airforcecadets.gov.au

Visit us without obligation for a look and to get all your questions answered

AIR FORCE CADETS

INSPIRING TODAY - LEADING TOMORROW